

Date: June 3, 2016

To: County Executive Office, Campaign Finance Staff

From: Ventura County Clerk

Subject: Report #2016-05 of Apparent Violation of the Ventura County Campaign Finance Reform Ordinance (No. 4471)

In accordance with Section 1304(e) of the Ventura County Campaign Finance Reform Ordinance (No. 4471), the Ventura County Clerk is hereby reporting to the County Executive Office an apparent violation of Section 1268(a) of Ordinance #4471, by the Friends of Steve Bennett for Supervisor 2016 Committee. Section 1268(a) states:

“No person shall make to any participating candidate for elective county office or the controlled committee of such a candidate, and no such participating candidate for elective county office, or the controlled committee of such a candidate shall accept from a person any contribution totaling more than seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750) per election for each of the following elections for which the individual is a candidate: a primary election, or a general (runoff) election.”

Section 1264(d) of the Ordinance defines a “participating candidate” as “a candidate who has agreed to limit his or her expenditures pursuant to Section 1265.” Further, Section 1272 of the Ordinance defines the primary and general election cycles. Moreover, Section 1280 of the Ordinance states when contributions may be collected, beginning one year before the election.

According to the attached PDF of California Form 460 (January 1, 2016-April 23, 2016, filed April 28, 2016; and April 24, 2016-May 21, 2016, filed May 26, 2016), the following contributions to the Friends of Steve Bennett for Supervisor 2016 Committee are listed from Fred Rosenmund:

The Ventura County Clerk has determined that the above contributions from Fred Rosenmund, totaling $1,400 as listed on these documents, exceed on their face the $750 individual contribution limit over the course of an election cycle, and appear to be a violation of Section 1268(a) of the Ordinance.
